HAPPY FALL!

As the leaves change and the weather grows cooler, we begin to think of celebrating some of our favorite activities here at the library. This month, the Youth Services department has plans to turn the entire downstairs into a creative and slightly scary haunted house. On Halloween, take a break from trick or treating and dare to enter Anthony and Mary's spooky lair!

A new county-wide library event is The Great Give Back. In October, each Suffolk County Library picks a project or activity to complete on October 13th which will help the community in some way. This month, Shelter Island Library, will collect items for The Retreat for the entire month of October. The Retreat's mission is to provide safety, shelter, and support for victims of domestic abuse and to break the cycle of family violence. The Library is asking for donations of women's and children's pajamas, socks, children's sneakers and gift cards in any amount (grocery store, drug store or convenience store are most useful). Donations will be collected in the Youth Services area.

While you are out and about, enjoying the fall weather, don't forget to drop by the Library and check out a good book or DVD. While you are here, you can check out what is going on all over the island on our new community "bulletin board." The large screen over the magazine rack now scrolls notices of community events. If you have a not-for-profit community event you would like to show on the board, please let me know.

Our panel will explore the meaning of freedom of speech and the press as set forth in the First Amendment and its application in contemporary society.

BOOK CLUBS

SHELTER ISLAND LIBRARY BOOK CLUB:

Tuesday, October 9th, 5:00pm

Gilead by Marilynne Robinson

Gilead, winner of the 2005 Pulitzer Prize in fiction, is the story of John Ames, a seventy-seven-year-old pastor who is writing an account of his life and his family history to leave to his young son after he dies. The New York Times described it as "a beautiful work - demanding, grave and lucid."

MYSTERY MONDAY BOOK CLUB:

Monday, October 22nd, 5:00pm

A Test of Wills by Charles Todd

The first novel to feature war-damaged Scotland Yard inspector Ian Rutledge, A Test of Wills is the book that brought author Charles Todd into the spotlight. This Edgar® and Anthony Award-nominated, New York Times Notable mystery brilliantly evokes post-World War I Great Britain and introduces readers to one of crime fiction's most compelling series protagonists. Here the shell-shocked Rutledge struggles to retain his fragile grip on sanity while investigating the death of a popular army colonel.

JANE AUSTEN BOOK CLUB

Saturday, October 20th, 11:00am

Northanger Abbey

Austen's satire of gothic novels was the first to be completed for publication, but wasn't published until after her death in 1817. It is the coming of age story of tomboy and "heroine in training" Catherine Morland, lover of gothic novels. Northanger Abbey treats its characters as flawed, well-rounded individuals, not as perfect heroes, heroines and villains (as was the prevailing style of the era).

COOKBOOK CLUB:

Tuesday, October 23rd, 6:00pm

Oktoberfest!

It's time for some cool weather foods! We'll try a variety of traditional Oktoberfest dishes from schnitzel to bratwurst, and enjoy them with non-alcoholic beer to celebrate the fall season.

TUESDAY DOCUMENTARIES AT THE LIBRARY

The Wild Parrots of Telegraph Hill

Tuesday, October 16th, 7:00pm

Join us for this monthly program in which we'll showcase films from our Kanopy movie database.

In a celebration of urban wildness, The Wild Parrots of Telegraph Hill follows formerly homeless street musician Mark Bittner into San Francisco's avian subculture, where a remarkable flock of wild green-and-red parrots live and work to survive. Dubbed the "Bohemian St. Francis," Bittner falls in with the flock as he searches for his path through life, unaware that the wild parrots will do more for him than eat his sunflower seeds.

GREAT DECISIONS

Great Decisions is a foreign affairs program sponsored by the Foreign Policy Association and moderated by Kirk Ressler. A short film is followed by a discussion.

SOUTH AFRICA'S FRAGILE DEMOCRACY

Thursday, October 11th, 5:30 pm [SL301]

The African National Congress (ANC) party has governed South Africa since the end of apartheid in 1994. But the party today suffers from popular frustration over official corruption and economic stagnation. Given America's history of opportunistic engagements with Africa, there are few prospects for a closer relationship between the two countries. Meanwhile, a weaker ANC could lead to political fragmentation in this relatively new democracy.
