ALWAYS great movies, known and unknown

Jan. 17 Sullivan's Travels ***

Considered the most remarkable film in the varied career of writer-director Preston Sturges, this stars Joel McCrea, Veronica Lake and the Sturges "gang"

Jan. 31 Chicago

Superb film version from director Rob Marshall with flawless performances by Renee Zellweger, Catherine Zeta-Jones, Richard Gere and John C. Reilly, a "wow" from start to finish

Feb. 14 The Adventures of Priscilla Queen of the Desert

Celebrate Valentine's Day with this cheerfully outrageous comedy about two drag queens and a transsexual. Spoiler alert: Priscilla is a school bus.

Feb. 28 McCabe and Mrs. Miller ***

Director Robert Altman at the peak of his powers for this brilliant elegiac tale of the Old West with Warren Beatty and Julie Christie, stunningly beautiful.

Mar. 13 Inherit the Wind

Absorbing adaptation of the play about the Scopes Monkey Trial of 1925, an acting tour de force with Spencer Tracy, Frederick March and Gene Kelly

*One of 1001 Movies You Must See Before You Die

Park and enter from the rear.

Use the elevator or take the stairs.
